Dismissal of Petition

Dear Ms. Ruiz:

By this letter, we are confirming your recent request to withdraw your above-referenced petition for exemption<sup>1</sup> from the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) closed captioning rules.

On February 6, 2017, you advised the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau by telephone and email that you no longer seek the closed captioning exemption, and that you wish to withdraw your petition. Accordingly, your petition will be withdrawn and dismissed without prejudice as of the date of this notification, February 6, 2017. Because the Commission invited public comment on your Petition,<sup>2</sup> the withdrawal is also being announced by a Public Notice. For your convenience, we are enclosing a copy of the Public Notice announcing the dismissal of your Petition.

NOTICE OF EXEMPTION PETITION WITHDRAWALS AND DISMISSALS

CG Docket No. 06-181

By this Notice, the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's or Commission's) Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) announces the dismissal, without prejudice, of certain petitions for exemption from the Commission's closed captioning requirements listed herein.<sup>1</sup>

The Commission's closed captioning rules allow video programming providers, producers, or owners to obtain an exemption from the closed captioning requirements if they demonstrate that providing captions on their programming would be "economically burdensome."<sup>2</sup> On various dates, the petitioners listed in the Appendix filed petitions for closed captioning exemptions under these rules. The Bureau then placed each of these petitions on public notice. However, before the Commission determined whether to grant or deny the requests for an exemption, these petitioners provided written notification to the Commission that their programs were no longer on the air and that they wished to withdraw their petitions, thereby rendering their petitions moot. Therefore, on varying dates, we notified each petitioner listed in the Appendix that we would dismiss their petition without prejudice. This Notice serves to inform the general public that these petitions have been dismissed.
